A versatile athlete, Doris was known for her speed and enthusiasm as a varsity letter winner in field hockey, as a halfback; a guard in basketball; and a third baseman in softball. Additionally, she was member of the Future Homemakers of America, Teen Club, Hall Patrol, and Art and Yearbook staffs. She currently resides in Riverside, California, and is a corrections officer in the San Bernadino, Sheriff's Department.

THOMAS KANE CLASS OF 1955. Tom was a very versatile athlete, lettering in four sports. In football he was a varsity performer for three as a quarterback and linebacker. Tom was the team leader and Captain his senior year. During Tom's three years, Glassboro football earned an 18 - 5 record including the South Jersey Group III Championship. During the Winter Tom was the center of the basketball team and even wrestled in varsity matches his junior year. In baseball Tom matched his football success. Tom was the pitcher and shortstop on the South Jersey Championship team. In school Tom was a top student, President of the student Council and the Class vice-president. Tom went on the Drexel University and presented owns his own steel designing company in Bellmawr.

TOM FANFARILLO, CLASS OF 1941. Tom was perhaps the most versatile athlete ever to play at Glassboro High School. He was a star in every sport in which he participated. In football he played three years winning All Star recognition in Gloucester County and in South Jersey. Tom's hard hitting defensive style was only overshadowed by his offensive talents as a halfback, placing him among the top scorers in South Jersey. He also excelled in basketball. He was the leading scorer on a very successful team, possessing outstanding speed, defensive skills, as well as winning the prestigious foul shooting contest. Tom was also a four letter winner in baseball. He was voted team captain his senior year. He led Gloucester County in home runs, maintaining a .430 batting average, as well as leading the team in stolen bases. After school, Tom's talents did not go unrecognized, he received tryouts with the Philadelphia Athletics. He continued on, playing semi-pro ball for a number of years and was well known in athletic circles throughout South Jersey.

VINCE MENNA, CLASS OF 1957. Vince was an excellent two sport performer for Glassboro High School. He excelled in football and track.
