1993 INDUCTEES

J. GARFIELD JACKSON, - CLASS OF 1932, a two sport performer excelling in football and track. In football he helped captain a Glassboro team that recorded five shutouts on their way to a 8 - 1 season. In track, Mr. Jackson won honors as an outstanding sprinter. he later served as a teacher and an administrator in the South Jersey area before retiring in 1980.

JAMES MOORE - CLASS OF 1933, another outstanding football player in the early 30's, Mr. Moore was an outstanding lineman during the 31 season when the team finished 8 - 1 and captained the 1932 team that also finished 8 - 1. he recently retired from Chrysler Corporation in Delaware and still lives in the Glassboro area. Mr. Moore has remained a fan of Glassboro athletics and attends many of our contests.

FRED CARTER - CLASS OF 1939, an outstanding track performer. Fred set school records in the 100 yd. and 220 yd. dashes. he also was one of the top long jumpers setting a school record in that event as well. He earned medals at the Penn Relays in 1938 and in 1939. Mr. Carter joins his son Fred Jr. on the distinguished Glassboro Hall of Fame. Mr. Carter still lives in the area and recently retired from Genova Trucking Co. in Williamstown.

JOHN STEINERT, JR. - CLASS OF 1940, an excellent three sport performer lettering in football, wrestling and baseball. His top accomplishment was to finish third in the State Wrestling Tournament at heavyweight. Still active as an independent flooring contractor in the Glassboro area.

PETE ALACQUA - CLASS OF 1939, a top notch two sport performer earning varsity letters in baseball and basketball. He was the basketball captain and the top scorer on the team. Mr. Alacqua spent many years as a coach in the Glassboro Little League system. He recently retired after 38 years at Owens- Illinois in Glassboro.

CAROLYN PRIEST - CLASS OF 1956, an outstanding three sport performer and one of the top athletes of the 50's, Carolyn earned four varsity letters in field hockey, three in basketball and four in softball. She was the team Captain in all three sports in her senior year, she was also a school leader and an officer in the Student Government.
